FAA Explains: Line Up And Wait

The FAA has published an Information For Operators document (InFO 10014) giving further details on the change in standard phraseology from "Taxi Into Position and Hold" (TIPH) to "Line Up and Wait" (LUAW).

Beginning on September 30, 2010, ATC will begin issuing LUAW clearances to aircraft to indicate the pilot should taxi onto the runway and await takeoff clearance.

LUAW is the standard language for a taxi-and-hold-for-takeoff clearance internationally.

The FAA reminds all operators of aircraft and airport service providers to ensure personnel are properly briefed on the change in phraseology.
