SENIOR MANAGEMENT CHANGES MARK NEW FOCUS FOR FLIGHTLINE GROUP

Cody Langston Named GM for Flightline TLH, Bob Van Riper Transitions to V.P. HondaJet Sales for HondaJet Southeast

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., October 25, 2007 – Flightline Group, Inc. today announced a restructuring designed to seize new business opportunities, allow growth opportunities for members of the senior management team and provide continued focus on customer satisfaction. Staff members Bob Van Riper and Cody Langston, who have been sharing responsibilities for FBO management at Flightline's Tallahassee FL location, have been redirected to allow for greater focus on HondaJet sales in the Southeast and FBO management and customer services at the Tallahassee FBO.

Bob Van Riper, who has been with Flightline since 1998 in executive roles covering FBO Management, Business Development and Aircraft Sales, has been appointed to lead the HondaJet Southeast sales efforts based in Tallahassee FL. Most recently, Van Riper served as General Manager for the Company's Tallahassee FBO operation. In his new role as Vice President of Sales for HondaJet Southeast, Van Riper will lead the Company's efforts in the region to develop and mature the HondaJet's market presence and service the many customers and HondaJet deposit holders in the territory. Van Riper is a 20 year veteran of the U.S. Navy & continues to serve as a Commander in the Navy Reserves. He holds a B.S. in Aviation Maintenance Management from Embry Riddle Aeronautical University, a M.B.A. from Troy State University, an Airframe & Powerplant License, and Airline Transport Ratings for both rotorcraft and fixed wing aircraft.

Cody Langston, Operations Manager has been promoted to General Manager of the Flightline Tallahassee FBO. As General Manager, Langston will lead a team of approximately 30 who are responsible for facilities management, aviation fuel, and line and customer services for airline, general aviation and military customers. Langston has served the company in varying roles since 1997 as Line Technician, Customer Service Representative, Customer Service Manager and most recently as Operations Manager. Langston represents the third generation in his family to be professionally involved in aviation and follows the family's dedication to providing and promoting extraordinary aviation services. Langston holds a B.S. in Business Management from Florida State University and is a student pilot.

“Flightline takes the leadership of the HondaJet sales in the Southeast and the core FBO management seriously, and we are proud and fortunate to have the talents, experience, dedication and commitment that both Bob and Cody bring to bear on the Flightline Team” said Paul “Mac” Langston, CEO of Flightline Group, Inc. “Bob has been a key member of the leadership team responsible for our extraordinary customer service reputation and safety record at the Tallahassee location. His personal energy level and tenacity to provide sales services well beyond the expectations of our HondaJet customers in the Southeast will delight our customers again in his new endeavors.”

On a personal note, Mac Langston noted, “it is with great pride that my son Cody takes the reins at the Tallahassee FBO. He has been involved with the FBO’s operations his whole life and exhibits a keen understanding of the complex logistical operations of a large FBO. Equally important, Cody is committed to exceed the expectations of our customers for quality services and continuously enhance the strong relationship we seek to build with each customer.”

“With so many opportunities at our doorstep, our ability to focus and dedicate talent and energy will determine our ultimate success” said C. Daniel Langston, President & COO of Flightline Group, Inc. “The full support of the extraordinary Flightline team is behind Bob and Cody in their new freedom to pursue their new responsibilities.”
